

C. Marilla (Edgecomb) and Josiah DeLong

Marilla Edgecomb was married in about 1832 to Josiah DeLong,¹ b. about 1806 in Pennsylvania or Ohio, d. 1870. It is not known if they were married before they came to Allen County, Ohio or after they were already living there.

In 1840, Josiah DeLong was living in Lima². On 10 Oct 1840, Josiah bought 40 acres of land near Paulding in Van Wert County (but which is now in Paulding County).³ It is not known whether Josiah and Marilla moved there from Lima. By 1850 they had moved to Pigeon Twp., Vanderburgh Co. (near Evansville), Indiana where Josiah was a tavern keeper.⁴ They moved north to Gibson County and in 1860 Josiah was a plaster living in Patoka.⁵ They were still living in Gibson County in 1870⁶, and their grandson Mathew Augustus, age 14 was living with them at that time. After 1870, Josiah and Marilla were not listed in the census, so presumably they had died by 1880.
